050307 - Prayers - General Curse Breaking Prayers

General Curse-Breaking Prayers

(These prayers are based on those used by the California DWJD teams - March 18, 2004 - prepared by Tim Williams, to whom we are indebted. This UK version has been prepared by Pulling Down Strongholds UK.)

HOW TO USE THESE PRAYERS

For these prayers to be effective, the person saying them must be a born-again Christian and part of the Kingdom of God. The curses are broken by the delegated authority in the name of Jesus Christ.

The person must believe what they are saying, as they confess it with their mouth.

These prayers are to be said out loud. They involve the confession of sin, the breaking of curses and the renunciation of association with spirits.

Most people do not know what their ancestors have been involved in. Therefore the prayers cover many areas of life. Though many of them may not be pertinent to the person speaking them, they may well apply to their ancestors.

It is good to have a friend witness the person speaking the prayers. The presence of a friend also lends support, as these prayers are long. The friend can also ensure that the prayers are said correctly.

These prayers are very useful as a forerunner to ministry. They save a lot of time.

Whilst saying the prayers, people often feel a stirring deep inside, an uneasy feeling, which becomes evident when certain words or phrases are spoken. If this happens, use a pen to ring round the word or phrase. These are indicators which are very useful in ministry later.

If freemasonry has been connected to the family in some way, the curse-breaking prayers specifically for freemasonry MUST ALSO BE DONE.

Where there has been involvement in Asian, African or South American religions or Satanism, there will be other curses and covenants which will need to be broken during ministry, in addition to those contained in these prayers.

Prayer to start.

1. Heavenly Father, I come before You, in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ;
2. I ask that You will forgive my sins;
3. I also come before You on behalf of my ancestors of both my father and mother,
 - on behalf of any ancestry I inherited from (temporary/foster/adoptive parents or carers)
 - on behalf of any ancestry I inherited from (my spouse), (my ex-spouse(s)), and
 - on behalf of anyone else with whom I or my ancestors have had relationships,all the way back to Adam;
4. I also come before You on behalf of my children, (my adoptive children,) (children of my blended family,) (my spiritual children,) and all future generations;
5. to ask Your forgiveness for my sins, and the sins of the family, and the sins of the ancestors, all the way back to Adam. (Exodus 10:5)
6. I repent of them and ask that these sins be forgiven and washed away by the blood of Jesus Christ.
7. I also ask that I and my family line be washed clean and restored as if we had never sinned.
8. Heavenly Father, as I name the various areas of life listed below, these situations, and these involvements, I pray You will forgive me and forgive my ancestral family, put away our sins, because of the sacrifice of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, who died and shed His blood so that we might be forgiven.
9. I also ask that every curse associated with each of these areas, whether they be over me, over my ancestral family line, or over the future generations, be broken and removed, in the name of Jesus Christ.
10. I also ask that every vow or oath which has been uttered, be cancelled and deemed null and void because of the death of our Lord Jesus Christ, who paid for our freedom with His blood on the cross of Calvary.
11. I also revoke every ungodly covenant which has been entered into, throughout the generations and declare them cancelled, in the name of Jesus Christ.
12. I also ask that every ungodly soul tie with people or other beings or with objects, be severed forever and that any parts of me or my family which reside elsewhere, be returned to us, washed in the blood of Jesus, and any parts of other people or beings, which are in us, be returned to where they should be, in the name of Jesus Christ.
13. Heavenly Father, as I speak out these areas of life, these situations, these involvements, I renounce my involvement and that of my family. I renounce all association with the spirits attached to these areas, in the name of Jesus. I command these spirits and all supporting spirits, leave and go to the pit, leaving nothing behind. I also ask Lord, that You will enforce these evictions. I make this decision and request in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
