

Deliverance from Laziness, Distraction & Time Wasting

Today I'm going to be praying against laziness, procrastination and things of that nature. The enemy is determined to get Christians to waste time. First, he tries to discourage people with feelings of condemnation and hopelessness. Those demonic feelings get people to be lazy and waste time instead of pressing into God. But the truth is, that every believer has been made righteous, is loved by God, and has a divine calling.

Christians should not believe the demonic lie that their actions or inactions don't matter. Every Christian can be victorious because of their position in Christ, and their ability to pray. Our service to God on earth is the only commodity we can offer to God. It is our most valuable commodity.

In the bible, we see what happened to the man that had one talent and buried it. He was called lazy and wicked. He did not fulfill his calling and he ended up not inheriting the kingdom of God. Laziness and procrastination are things that the enemy uses the most against us.

I am going to be praying for a variety of issues that people might struggle with. If one doesn't apply to you specifically, there's going to be one that does. I'll be praying for what will be beneficial to you. Before we start, I'm going to ask you to repeat a prayer after me. We are going to have you renounce every spirit that is trying to oppress you.

Just find a comfortable place and just say, "Father God, I come before you in Jesus's name. I ask you, Lord, to deliver me. I renounce every heavy weight of the enemy. I renounce the lies of hopelessness and powerlessness. I renounce laziness and procrastination. I want to use my time effectively, Lord. I renounce all distraction and time-wasting in Jesus's name. Lord, I pray that I would be encouraged by You to fulfill my calling in Jesus's name. Amen."
