

Deliverance from Self Pride & Control

Today, in Jesus' Name, we're going to be praying against all demonic spirits that cause you to try to have control over your life, that cause you to try to be a god over your life, so to speak. We're praying against demonic spirits that cause you to try to be the ruler over your own life. We're going to be praying against the unseen spirits that try to make you throne yourself over your own life.

We're not casting out spirits of self, but we're casting out demonic spirits that cause people to be selfish, that cause people to want to rule their own lives. This can happen in an overt sense, but this could also happen in a subtle sense. In many different decisions that we make, we could be subtly rebellious, we could be subtly defiant in trying to orchestrate our own lives apart from God's will.

Many times, when somebody struggles with this, they will have problems of being very stressed out when things don't go your way, you get very anxious when things don't go your way, you become very bitter, you get disappointed when different things in life don't go your way. If you don't have that peace to be led by God, there's a problem.

The Word of God says in the book of James, we should not say I will go here or there tomorrow, and sell and get gain, but we should rather say if it be the Lord's will. I think we all need to grow in this area of giving further control of our lives over to God and not trying to be God for other people. We should not be trying to be other people's conviction. We can't have a savior complex where we try to allow ourselves to be a doormat or let it be the end of the world if people don't hear what we have to say.

A lot of rejection and fear of rejection and hypersensitivity to people rejecting you and things of that nature comes back to this. You're not trusting that God will bring the increase. The Word of God says that one man plants, another sows, or another waters, but it's God who brings the increase. God is ultimately the one who will change people's hearts. The Bible says the Holy Spirit will convict the world of sin in righteousness and judgment. We're not called to be the one who transforms people's lives ultimately, but it is God who does.

Now, obviously we can't use that as an excuse to be lazy, but we also can't use our obligation to do God's will as an excuse to try to be a mini tyrant. If you don't know what that word means, it means like one who tries to control others, to be domineering. This is very easy to do as well when you have seemingly righteous intentions as a Christian that you want to see people change, you want to see people saved, you want to see people believe the truth, but you could really be trying to just manipulate people or manipulate your life circumstances.

Before we begin to pray, search your heart for any known sin and repent to the Father for it. Also repent for any sin of your ancestors, whether known or unknown. Search your heart for any unforgiveness and be sure to work that out in your heart, and forgive, even as God in Christ has forgiven us. Unforgiveness is a sure way to block your deliverance.

I'm going to pray now in the Name of Jesus Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit, that God would set you free.

Father, we acknowledge that all of the promises of God are yes and amen, to the glory of God by us. We thank you, Heavenly Father, in Jesus' mighty Name! Amen and amen!

I want to share with you, and I might need to say it more often, don't allow your deliverance to be all dependent on what you feel in the moment. Rather, trust that as you've received deliverance prayer by faith, God is going to do the work in your life.

The Bible says we should walk by faith and not by sight, and when you're trying to get delivered it's very easy to try to veer off of walking by faith, but rather what you see, what you feel, and obviously that is an element of discernment. Obviously, when God does deliver you He gives you the joy of the Lord. He fills you with His Spirit afterwards. Don't get me wrong, but I'm just saying don't veer off too far in the other direction of making a bunch of conclusions based on how you feel. In Jesus Name, amen!

God bless you, in the Name of Jesus Christ.
