

Deliverance from the Spirit of Mammon, Poverty, Love of Money

Today I'm going to be praying against the spirit of Mammon. I want to let you know I'm not going to be praying against merely one aspect of financial difficulties but I'm also going to be praying about a variety of different things within this category. I'm going to be praying against the love of money, I'm going to be praying against covetousness, but I'm also going to be praying against demons that are trying to cause poverty in your life. I'm going to be praying against demons that are trying to cause blockages with job opportunities, business opportunities, etc.

The Bible teaches balance with regard to our financial situation. The Bible does say the love of money is the root of all evil, or the root of many evils. The Bible also does say though I've never seen the righteous forsaken or His seed begging for bread. I'm going to pray for you guys now in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Before we begin, renounce and repent of any sin, known or unknown, that you or your ancestors may have committed, whether related to monetary gain or otherwise. Truly repent, which means to turn away from your sin. Search your heart for any unforgiveness you have been holding against any other person, and make a conscious choice to forgive that person, as the Lord has forgiven your transgressions. Unforgiveness will block deliverance, so we want to search our hearts and be sure that we are not harboring unforgiveness. As the Word says, vengeance belongs to the Lord. Release whatever needs to be released to the Lord.
