

Deliverance from Envy, Impatience, Jealousy & Coveting

I'm going to be praying for you, in the Name of Jesus Christ, for your deliverance. I'm going to be praying against a variety of different things from coveting to envy to fantasy to escapism. Many times the demons will try to get you to escape from reality by fantasizing about what if I had this, what if I had that, what if I didn't do this. It's good to have goals and aspirations, but it's definitely not good to have envy and covetousness in your heart and many times when you start to envy and have jealousy you will start to despise others and we definitely don't want to be in that place.

As you listen to this prayer make sure that you're in a comfortable place where you're not going to be distracted because you may experience manifestations as you listen to this prayer.

If there's anything you need to confess, if there's anything you need to repent of before the Lord before listening to this prayer, make sure to go ahead and do so now. Also repent for any sin of your ancestors, whether known or unknown. Search your heart for any unforgiveness and be sure to work that out in your heart, and forgive, even as God in Christ has forgiven us. Unforgiveness is a sure way to block your deliverance.

It's very important to forsake a sinful disposition of your heart such as envy, bitterness, and covetousness in your heart. You need to let go of it, not just outwardly stop doing sin but also allowing God to transform your heart.
