

Deliverance from Lying and Deceit Spirits

I'm going to be praying for your deliverance from against spirits that tempt people to lie, to use deceit, to use manipulation, and the spirits that are at the root cause of lying. It's very important that we tell the truth, that we do not lie or overly exaggerate, and that we are not afraid to tell the truth.

You can lie by leaving out something that is important. Lying is not merely saying things that are inaccurate or false. Lying is a condition of the heart, where your intent is to deceive for your own purpose. The listener comes away with information that is untrue or is not the full picture.

If I say that it's sunny outside, and it's cloudy, but I really thought it was sunny, that's not lying. That's just saying something that's not true out of ignorance. But if I tell somebody, "let's go outside, it's nice and sunny," when I know it's cloudy, but I'm trying to get them outside to do something with me, that qualifies as lying. I just want to make that distinction.

So repent, in the name of Jesus. Repent for lying or for leaving information out. Repent for the root cause, which was to gain something you wanted or avoid something you didn't want. The motive can include wanting to hide things in the darkness because of not wanting to be judged, or from being ashamed. So repent and come out of agreement with pride, with shame, and with fear.

So I'm going to pray for you now in the name of Jesus that He would set you free. Father God, I thank you for your word, that says that no lie is of the truth. Father, your word says that those who tell a lie and who love a lie are in the group that is not allowed through the gates of the New Jerusalem. Lord, help us to hate lies and to love the truth.

Help us, Father, to trust that You will work things out, even if the truth causes people's issues to be brought to the surface. Even if it causes a shift in the atmosphere, let them speak the truth, knowing that it will bear good fruit in due season, while lies will only bear corrupt fruit in the long-term. Thank you, Father God, in the name of Jesus.

Help them, Lord, to not love comfort, but love the truth, even when it brings complexity or adds extra steps or creates scenarios. Jesus, please fill every void and give them the confidence to speak the truth, not to hide the truth or reality in the darkness, but let it be exposed to the light. Thank you, Father God. Your word says there is nothing that is hidden in darkness that shall not be brought to the light. Lord, help us to bring these things to the light ourselves, so that you don't have to do it for us through disciplinary action.

Thank you, Father God in the name of Jesus. Father, we give you praise, honor, and glory. Thank you for the breakthrough that we can receive through the Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you, Father God, for the miracle of deliverance that you are doing in our lives. We thank you, Father God, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. God bless you in Jesus's name.

I'm believing for a radical change in your life as you've received this prayer. If you're still having stuff manifest or come out, return back to the beginning of this video and watch the prayer again. You can watch it multiple times over.

Please continue to walk in uprightness. Stay vigilant to abide in the truth. Even Paul the Apostle said, "I beat my body and keep it under subjection, lest by any means I become a castaway after I've preached to others." But I'm convinced of greater things for us.
