

Deliverance Prayer for Depression, Anxiety, Sorrow & Sadness

I'm going to be praying against depression, anxiety, sorrow and sadness.

Before we begin the prayer, it is very important that you renounce and sincerely repent of all sin that you or your ancestors have committed, whether known or unknown. To repent of your sin means to turn away from it, not just to say you're sorry and go right back to the sin. Come out of agreement with your sin by renouncing it and then turn away from it by repenting. Also, bring to mind anyone, including yourself, against whom you may be holding unforgiveness against and truly forgive that person or yourself. Jesus has told us that we must give forgiveness to receive forgiveness from our Heavenly Father. We must forgive one another as God in Christ has forgiven us. Holding onto unforgiveness, bitterness, and anger prevents us from receiving full deliverance.

I'm going to be praying against depression and I'm going to be praying against anxiety. I know oftentimes, anxiety spirits are linked to depression so I'm going to be praying against those as well. I'm also going to be praying against heaviness and negative thinking. I'm going to be casting out many different kinds of spirits that trouble people.

Make sure you can really hone in and listen to the video and as you're receiving deliverance. You don't have to pray at all but I will go ahead and pray. I'll lead you through a prayer to renounce all demonic spirits. Repeat this prayer after me:
Father, I come before You, in the Name of Jesus Christ. I ask You, Lord, to deliver me. I renounce all of my sins and I renounce every demonic spirit. I renounce depression, I renounce anxiety and I renounce heaviness (Renounce anything else that is applicable to your situation). I renounce Satan and all of his demons, in Jesus' name, amen. I ask You, Lord, to forgive me and cleanse me of all unrighteousness in Jesus' Name, amen.
