

A Personal Letter from God to My Beloved Child

Here's your personalized love letter from God, your loving Father to His child, based on Ephesians 1 (NLT) and your confession of faith:

My Dearest Child,

Before the foundations of the world were laid, I chose you. I saw you. I knew you. I formed you in My heart before I formed you in your mother's womb. It gave Me great joy to call you Mine.

You are not an accident. You are not forgotten. You are not rejected. You are chosen—handpicked by My will and wrapped in My love. Through My Son Jesus Christ, I adopted you into My eternal family. Nothing can ever separate you from Me.

Every spiritual blessing in heaven already belongs to you because you are united with Christ. I have given you access to My wisdom, peace, authority, and power. I am not holding anything back from you—I've already poured it out through the finished work of the Cross.

Even in your darkest moments, I was loving you. Even when you were unsure of Me, I had already made up My mind about you. I saw you holy and without fault in My sight—not because of your perfection, but because of Jesus, who covered you with His righteousness.

You are redeemed. You are forgiven. The blood of My Son purchased your freedom, and I no longer count your sins against you. You are clean, whole, and restored.

My kindness has been poured over your life like a river. I have lavished My grace upon you—grace for today, grace for every mistake, grace to keep going when you're weary, and grace to grow into all I've created you to be.

I have made known to you the mystery of My will—not to confuse you, but to include you in My divine plan. Everything is coming together in Christ, and you are part of something eternal and glorious. You are My masterpiece.

I want you to know that your inheritance is secure. The Holy Spirit in you is My personal guarantee—a seal marking you as My own. I will never abandon you. You are Mine, and I rejoice over you with singing.

My child, you are not powerless. The same power that raised Jesus from the dead is working inside of you right now. You are not weak—you are victorious. You are not helpless—you are empowered. You are not invisible—I see you and have seated you with Christ above every ruler and authority.

Christ is the Head of all things, and you are part of His Body. Because you are in Him, you lack nothing. You are made full and complete by Him. I've placed you exactly where you need to be for this season, and nothing—absolutely nothing—can stop the plans I have for you.

When your heart grows tired or you feel uncertain, come back to this truth: I have called you. I have chosen you. I have filled you with My Spirit. You are surrounded by My power and protected by My hand.

Lift up your head, My beloved. You carry My name. You carry My promises. You carry My presence.

You are My child, and I am your Father. And I am so very pleased with you.

With everlasting love,

Your Abba Father

—The One who calls you Mine
