

Teaching: God's Design for the Family and Deliverance for Children

Page 1: God's Order for the Family Begins with Salvation

1. Salvation Is the Foundation for the Family

The most important need for parents and children is to receive salvation through Jesus Christ.

It is not enough to just be a good parent or well-behaved child; salvation secures our place with God both now and in eternity.

As John 3:16 says, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

2. Children Can Receive Salvation Early

Children are capable of understanding the Gospel at a young age.

If a child is old enough to disobey and ask forgiveness from a parent, they are old enough to repent before God.

Parents, especially fathers, are charged by God to teach their children the way of salvation and instruct them in the truth.

3. Responsibility for Spiritual Teaching Lies with Parents

God did not assign the responsibility of spiritual development to Sunday School teachers or pastors.

Ephesians 6:4 reminds fathers: "And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord."

4. Children Can Perceive Spiritual Truths

Spiritual maturity is not limited by physical age.

Even young children can grasp the concept of good and evil, repentance, and deliverance.

Page 2: How Evil Spirits Influence Children

5. Children Are Vulnerable to Spiritual Attack

The devil seeks to enter children early in life, often without detection.

Just as Jesus said in John 10:10, "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy."

6. Evil Spirits Can Enter Through Trauma, Neglect, and Sinful Environments

Children can be exposed to spiritual darkness through:

Involvement with ungodly caretakers

Exposure to idols, false religions, or witchcraft

Family strife and quarreling

Television or media promoting fear, violence, and horror

7. Spirits of Anger and Murder

Children who are ridiculed, mocked, teased, or abused may open the door to spirits of rage or hatred.

As 1 John 3:15 states, "Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him."

8. Spirit of Fear

Fear is one of the most common spirits to enter children.

It often comes through frightening movies, stories, or traumatic experiences.

2 Timothy 1:7 reminds us: "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind."

9. Parents Open or Close the Door to the Enemy

Family environments filled with anger, arguments, and rebellion become gateways for demonic influence.

Even Christian families who allow sin or discord in the home can unknowingly expose children to these influences.

10. Deliverance for Children

Children need prayer, love, and guidance for healing and deliverance.

Just like adults, they must renounce sin and receive the Holy Spirit.

Jesus said in Matthew 19:14, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

11. Teaching and Modeling Holiness in the Home

Parents must model humility, prayer, repentance, and obedience.

A godly home atmosphere should include worship, Bible reading, and unity.

12. Choosing Whom to Serve

Every person must decide whether they will serve God or open themselves to darkness.

Joshua 24:15 declares, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Follow-Up Prayer for Listeners

Father God, in the mighty name of Jesus,

Thank You for revealing Your divine order for the family. I lift up every parent and child who heard this message. Lord, stir in the hearts of parents the urgency to teach their children Your ways. Let every home be filled with Your Spirit and shielded from the schemes of the enemy.

I pray for the salvation of every child. Let them come to know Jesus early and be sealed by the Holy Spirit. I ask for deliverance for children who have been exposed to fear, anger, rejection, and evil influence. Cleanse them by the blood of Jesus. Drive out every unclean spirit that has entered through trauma, neglect, media, or strife.

Lord, bring healing to family relationships. Restore what has been broken. Teach parents to walk in righteousness and train up their children in the way they should go. Release peace, love, and unity in every home.

I declare the enemy has no hold on our children. They will be taught by the Lord, and great shall be their peace. We seal them in the name of Jesus and proclaim, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

In Jesus' name, amen.
