

🔥 Teaching Title: "Faith That Speaks and Moves Mountains: Living the God-Kind of Faith" - Part 2

📖 Introduction: Real Talk About Faith

Let's be honest—living by faith is not always easy. But it is essential.

The God-Kind of Faith isn't for a select few—it's the birthright of every believer. It's the divine mechanism that connects Heaven to Earth. And it's not mystical or complicated. It runs on two things:

Believing in the heart (your spirit)

Confessing with the mouth (your words)

When these two components are in sync—supernatural power is released.

Before we dive deeper, let's remind ourselves of one unshakable truth:

Hebrews 13:5 (NKJV)

“Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, ‘I will never leave you nor forsake you.’”

God is faithful. He is with you now. And His Word is alive.

Quick Recap of Part 1: What We Learned

The God-Kind of Faith functions through a 1:3 ratio — believe once, speak it three times.

Confession is often missing in believers' lives due to spiritual neglect or worldly distractions.

When believers immerse themselves in God's Word, prayer, worship, and fellowship, their thinking, talking, and acting begin to align with God's will.

Speaking God's promises (out loud, with faith) brings transformation and manifestation.

The Dual Role of Confession

The Bible speaks of two types of confession:

Confession of sin – asking for forgiveness and restoration (1 John 1:9).

Confession of faith – boldly declaring God's promises over your life.

Today, we focus on the second kind. God is not waiting for you to "feel" healed, blessed, or delivered—He's waiting for you to say it and believe it.

1 John 1:9 (NKJV)

“If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”

While that speaks to sin, the principle applies to promises too: Confession unlocks cleansing, blessing, and breakthrough.

□ Power of Life and Death Is in the Tongue

Proverbs 18:21 (NKJV)

“Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.”

Think about that: Your tongue holds the steering wheel of your destiny.

Your tongue can bless or curse your life.

Your words build faith or fuel fear.

Your mouth is either a weapon of faith—or a gateway for defeat.

Hebrews 11:3 (NKJV)

“By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.”

 Everything God created—He spoke into existence. And since we’re made in His image, your words also carry creative power.

📖 Watch Out for Double-Minded Confession

James 1:8 (NKJV)

“He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.”

Here’s how it looks:

Monday: “I’m healed in Jesus’ name!”

Tuesday: “Maybe this is just my cross to bear.”

Mixed confession = cancelled results.

Why? Because God is outside of time. He sees every word as now. Contradicting yourself is like watering a seed one day and digging it up the next.

📖 The Heart-Mouth Connection

Romans 10:8-10 (NKJV)

“But what does it say? ‘The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart’ (that is, the word of faith which we preach):

that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.”

Key Takeaways:

The heart (spirit) is where belief happens.

The mouth (tongue) is where confession releases results.

Salvation (Greek: soteria) includes healing, deliverance, protection, and provision.

In essence: Believe the Word. Speak the Word. See the Word come to pass.

Practical Steps to Activate the God-Kind of Faith

What to Do:

Find the Promise: Search Scripture for what applies to your need.

Personalize It: Speak it as if it's already yours.

Confess It Daily: Declare it until it manifests.

Reject Contradictory Speech: Don't undo your confession by speaking doubt.

Feed Your Faith: Listen to faith-building sermons, worship, and godly conversations.

Guard Your Inputs: What you watch and listen to affects what you believe and say.

Hebrews 10:23 (NKJV)

“Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful.”

Hold. It. Fast. Don't drop your confession. Don't let time or circumstance shake you. He is faithful who promised!

Final Encouragement: You Are in a Fight for Your Faith

1 John 4:4 (NKJV)

“You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.”

The enemy's #1 goal is to steal the Word from your heart (Mark 4:15). Don't give him that access.

Surround yourself with believers of faith.

Carry your Bible (physical or digital) and read it often.

Set alarms or reminders to speak promises over your life.

Get involved in the work of God—faith grows as it flows.

You're not doing this alone. The Greater One lives in you. The Holy Spirit empowers you. The Word equips you. And your faith-filled words release Heaven on Earth.

Closing Prayer for the Hearers of This Word

Father, in the name of Jesus,

I thank You for every person who has received this teaching on the God-Kind of Faith. I ask You, Holy Spirit, to stir a fire in their hearts to believe and boldly confess Your promises. Strengthen them to silence every voice of doubt and every negative confession that has blocked their breakthrough.

I bind the spirit of double-mindedness and release the mind of Christ over them. Let Your Word dwell in them richly. Let faith rise, let boldness grow, let testimonies overflow.

Father, help them hold fast to the confession of their hope without wavering, knowing that You are faithful. May their words align with Your Word. May their hearts burn with truth. And may they walk in victory, healing, and purpose every single day.

I bless them now in Jesus' mighty name.

Amen and amen!
