

Prayer for God's Love, Love for God, and Love for Others

(With Binding and Loosing in Jesus' Name)

Heavenly Father, Abba, my God of love,

I come before You today with a heart that thirsts for more of You, more of Your love, more of Your presence, and more of Your truth. I lay down every distraction, every wound, and every weight of this world that has tried to rob me of experiencing the fullness of Your love. I humble myself before Your throne, crying out for a deeper revelation of Your everlasting, steadfast, and unconditional love.

Lord, I acknowledge that You are love (1 John 4:8). You do not merely show love or feel love — You are the very essence of love itself. Therefore, to know You is to know love, and to love is to reflect who You are. Father, I long to know You in this way. I long to love You with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength — and to love others as You have commanded me to.

1. Thank You for Loving Me First

“We love Him because He first loved us.” — 1 John 4:19 (NKJV)

Lord, before I ever knew You, You loved me. Before I ever thought of seeking You, You had already sent Your Son to die for me. Thank You, Father, for the cross — the greatest demonstration of love in all eternity. Thank You for pursuing me, redeeming me, washing me, forgiving me, and calling me Your child.

Let Your love be more than head knowledge. Let it pierce my heart and heal every wound left by rejection, abandonment, abuse, betrayal, or shame. I loose myself from every lie that says I am unworthy of love, unworthy of acceptance, or too broken to be restored. In Jesus' name, I bind every demonic spirit of rejection, self-hatred, condemnation, and fear that would block my ability to receive the love of God.

I loose the spirit of adoption, the spirit of truth, and the Holy Spirit of love to flood every part of my soul. Let the love of God be poured into my heart through the Holy Spirit who has been given to me (Romans 5:5). Thank You that nothing can separate me from Your love — not death, not life, not angels, not demons, not my past, not my failures, not the present, not the future, not height nor depth, nothing in all creation (Romans 8:38-39)!

2. Help Me Love You with All My Heart

“Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You.” – Psalm 63:3 (NKJV)

Father, I do not want to live a dry, mechanical life of religion. I want a fiery love relationship with You! Ignite my heart again. Let my love for You not be shallow or conditional. Let it not depend on how I feel, but let it be anchored in deep covenant devotion. Cause me to love what You love and hate what You hate. Let my obedience be birthed from love, not fear or obligation.

Break down every idol in my heart — every affection that tries to rise above You. I bind the spirit of idolatry, distraction, and lukewarmness. I bind the spirit of spiritual apathy and I loose the fire of the Holy Ghost to burn within me. Baptize me with Your Spirit and with fire! Create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit within me. Restore unto me the joy of Your salvation and uphold me with Your generous Spirit.

Lord Jesus, I want to know You. I want to sit at Your feet like Mary. I want to behold Your beauty and hear Your voice. Draw me close and remove every barrier that would keep me from full intimacy with You. My heart is Yours.

3. Teach Me to Love Others as You Love Me

“Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.” – 1 John 4:7 (NKJV)

Father, I confess that sometimes it's hard to love people. Sometimes my heart is guarded, my patience is thin, and my compassion is weak. But I know that true love is not rooted in my emotions — it's rooted in You. Lord, change me. Fill me with the fruit of the Spirit — love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23).

Help me to forgive those who have wronged me. I release bitterness, resentment, and hatred. I loose mercy, grace, and reconciliation. I bind the spirit of unforgiveness, division, and offense, and I loose the spirit of unity, compassion, and healing over every broken relationship in my life. Lord, help me to see others the way You see them — with eyes of love.

Let me be slow to anger, abounding in mercy, just as You are. Let me love not just in words, but in action and in truth. Teach me to love my enemies, to bless those who curse me, to do good to those who hate me, and to pray for those who spitefully use me. This kind of love is impossible without You — so I ask for a supernatural impartation of agape love through Your Spirit.

4. Let My Life Be a Testimony of Love

“By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.” — John 13:35 (NKJV)

Father, I want my life to scream “Jesus loves you.” Let my attitude, my words, and my actions reflect the love of Christ. Let me carry Your presence wherever I go. May my home be filled with love, may my friendships be rooted in love, may my ministry be led by love, and may my voice declare Your love to the broken, the rejected, and the lost.

Make me an agent of love in a loveless world. I bind the spirit of hatred, division, racism, violence, and cruelty that grips our culture. I loose the kingdom of God — righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost — over my city, my family, my church, and this generation. Use me to reach the hurting and to love the unlovable.

Lord, Your Word says that even if I have prophetic powers, understand all mysteries, and have faith to move mountains — but have not love — I am nothing (1 Corinthians 13:2). So, teach me the more excellent way: love.

5. Saturate Me in the Revelation of Your Love

“The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness.” – Lamentations 3:22-23 (NKJV)

God, I want to live daily in the awareness of Your love. Let me wake up every morning knowing I am deeply loved. Let me go to sleep each night secure in Your embrace. Erase every false image I’ve believed about You — that You’re distant, angry, or withholding. Reveal Yourself to me as Abba, the One who delights in me and rejoices over me with singing (Zephaniah 3:17).

Lord, I bind every stronghold in my mind that exalts itself against the knowledge of God’s love. I tear down the lies of the enemy that tell me I’m not enough, I’ve gone too far, or I can’t be forgiven. I loose the truth of Your Word into my mind and heart: I am fearfully and wonderfully made (Psalm 139:14), I am chosen (Ephesians 1:4), I am beloved (Colossians 3:12), and I am Yours (Isaiah 43:1).

Let Your perfect love cast out every fear. Let it deliver me from the fear of rejection, fear of failure, fear of abandonment, and fear of punishment. Your love is my safety and my identity.

6. Let the Church Walk in Love

“Above all things have fervent love for one another, for ‘love will cover a multitude of sins.’” – 1 Peter 4:8 (NKJV)

Lord, let Your Bride — the Church — be known not for buildings or platforms, but for love. Cleanse us of pride, competition, jealousy, and slander. Unite us in one heart and one Spirit. Let love be the banner over every ministry, every sermon, every outreach, and every gathering.

Raise up leaders who walk in humility and love. Heal the wounds between denominations. Let us be a city on a hill, a light in the darkness — not because of our perfection, but because of Your love flowing through us. Help us love the broken, the outcast, the sinner, and the stranger. Let our love not be selective or performative, but pure and Christlike.

I bind the spirit of division and strife in the Church and loose the spirit of unity, humility, and compassion in Jesus' name!

7. A Prayer to Abide in Love Daily

“So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.” – 1 Corinthians 13:13 (NKJV)

Father, let me live a lifestyle of love. Not just moments of love, not just acts of kindness, but abiding love. Teach me to remain in Your love — to abide in Christ as the vine, knowing that apart from Him I can do nothing.

May love become the motive behind my decisions, my ministry, my prayers, my conversations, and my service. May I never seek recognition but seek to glorify You in all things. May I never love to be loved in return, but love selflessly, sacrificially, sincerely.

Jesus, You said, “By this all will know that you are My disciples — if you have love for one another.” (John 13:35) So let that be my mark, my identity — LOVE.

Final Declaration and Amen

Father, thank You for hearing my prayer. I know You delight in answering when we call. Your Word declares, “Call to Me and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.” (Jeremiah 33:3)

I declare in Jesus' name:

I am loved by God.

I love God with all my heart.

I love others through the power of the Holy Spirit.

I bind every spirit of fear, hatred, bitterness, and pride.

I loose divine love, grace, unity, healing, and mercy.

I will walk in love every day of my life — and love will never fail.

In the mighty, matchless, unshakable name of Jesus Christ, Amen!
