

An illustration of an elderly Black man with a grey beard, wearing a blue suit jacket over a grey sweater and a light-colored collared shirt. He is standing on a rocky outcrop overlooking a river valley with mountains in the background. His hands are outstretched in a gesture of prayer or supplication, and he is looking upwards with a pleading expression. The background features a large, faint clock face with tick marks, suggesting a sense of time or urgency. The sky is filled with soft, golden light, possibly from a setting or rising sun.

OH GOD SHOW ME MERCY!

A 12-Section Teaching on Compassion, Grace, and Repentance

DELIVERANCE REVOLUTION MINISTRY

Complete with Powerful Prayers To Cry Out For Mercy ✦

Oh God Show Me Mercy!

This is a free resource provided by Pastor Nate Thompson and Deliverance Revolution Ministry, a non-profit ministry under the leading and covering of the Holy Spirit, serving people around the world.

Our mission is simple and biblical: to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, heal the sick, and cast out devils—just as Jesus commanded.

“And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons... they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

Mark 16:17–18 (NKJV)

Everything we offer is freely given, in obedience to the words of Jesus:

“Freely you have received, freely give.”

Matthew 10:8 (NKJV)

If you have been blessed, encouraged, strengthened, or helped through this ministry, and you feel led by the Holy Spirit, we invite you to consider making a donation of any amount. Your generosity helps us continue reaching souls, ministering deliverance, and equipping believers across the world.

Every gift is received with prayer, gratitude, and a commitment to steward it faithfully for the work of God’s Kingdom.

Thank you for partnering with what God is doing.

Oh God Show Me Mercy!

Mercy is not merely a suggestion or a theological concept; it is the very heartbeat of God and the lifeline of the believer. In a world that demands an eye for an eye and thrives on the cold mechanics of justice, we serve a Father who specializes in the "breaking of the rules" of judgment through His loving initiative. To cry out for mercy is not an admission of weakness, but a bold entry into the throne room of a God who is rich in compassion and limitless in power.

This teaching is designed to strip away the misconceptions that keep you bound in guilt and to position you under the waterfall of God's steadfast love. Whether you are coming home like a prodigal or seeking the strength to reflect His character to others, prepare to encounter the "hesed"—the unbreakable, covenant love of the Almighty. Stand tall and be encouraged; the God who made you alive in Christ even when you were dead in sin is ready to show you His great mercy today.

1. The Divine Definition of Mercy

Mercy is the compassionate response of a Creator who sees our condition and chooses to withhold the punishment our actions have earned. While justice gives us exactly what we deserve, mercy is the divine restraint that keeps judgment at bay and opens the door for grace. It is rooted entirely in God's character, not in our human effort or merit.

- "But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved)." (Ephesians 2:4-5 NKJV)

Summary: Understanding mercy begins with recognizing that it is a gift born of God's love rather than our goodness. It serves as the spiritual buffer that prevents us from facing the full weight of our mistakes. By accepting this definition, we shift our focus from our failures to the infinite riches of God's compassionate nature.

2. The Power of Repentance

The gateway to experiencing God's mercy is a heart that is genuinely broken and contrite. Repentance is more than just feeling bad about a mistake; it is a sincere turning away from sin and a turning toward the Father. God never turns His back on a soul that approaches Him with honesty and humility, as seen in the life of King David.

- "Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin." (Psalm 51:1-2 NKJV)

Summary: Repentance acts as the bridge between our fallen state and God's forgiving presence. When we stop hiding our iniquity and confess it openly, we unlock the healing power of divine pardon. A sincere heart is the only requirement for a total spiritual cleansing and a fresh start.

3. Mercy vs. Grace: Understanding the Distinction

While often used interchangeably, mercy and grace are two sides of the same coin of salvation. Grace is the active hand of God giving us the blessings and favor we could never earn. Mercy, however, is the protective hand of God preventing the consequences we rightfully deserve from reaching us.

- "Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4:16 NKJV)

Summary: Distinguishing between grace and mercy helps us appreciate the full scope of God's work in our lives. We need mercy to handle our past and grace to empower our future. Both are found at the throne of God, ensuring we are both protected from judgment and equipped for glory.

4. The Infinite Nature of God's Mercy

God does not possess a limited supply of compassion that runs dry when we fail too often. His mercy is described as "great," "rich," and "abounding," meaning it is as infinite as His own being. It reaches into the deepest pits of sin to rescue the "greatest" of sinners, regardless of how much time has passed.

- "The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy." (Psalm 103:8 NKJV)

Summary: We can never exhaust the compassion of the Almighty, no matter the scale of our transgressions. His mercy is an ever-flowing fountain that remains as fresh and free today as it was at the beginning of time. This infinite supply provides us with the confidence to keep seeking Him throughout our journey.

5. Mercy as a Mandate for the Believer

Receiving mercy from God carries a divine responsibility to reflect that same compassion to those around us. We are called to be tenderhearted and forgiving, mirroring the way Christ has treated us. To withhold mercy from others while claiming to have received it from God is a contradiction of the Christian faith.

- "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy." (Matthew 5:7 NKJV)

Summary: Our treatment of others serves as a direct reflection of our understanding of God's mercy. By choosing to forgive those who wrong us, we align ourselves with the heartbeat of heaven and stay in the flow of divine favor. Showing mercy is not a suggestion but a requirement for those who walk with Christ.

6. The Everlasting Faithfulness of Compassion

The world may change and people may fail us, but God's compassions are renewed every single day. His mercy is not a one-time event at salvation but a constant, sustaining force that keeps us from being consumed by the trials of life. Even when we are unfaithful, His mercy remains a steadfast anchor.

- "Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness." (Lamentations 3:22-23 NKJV)

Summary: Every sunrise is a physical testimony to the fact that God has provided a fresh batch of mercy for our daily needs. This daily renewal ensures that our past failures do not have the power to dictate our current standing with the Father. We can face each day with hope, knowing His faithfulness is greater than our struggles.

7. Mercy Triumphs Over Judgment

In the spiritual realm, justice demands payment for sin, but mercy steps in to pay the debt. Mercy "boasts" or triumphs over judgment, effectively silencing the accusations of the enemy. When we are covered by the mercy of God, the legal claims of the kingdom of darkness are rendered powerless.

- "For judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment." (James 2:13 NKJV)

Summary: The victory of mercy over judgment is the ultimate legal win for the believer. It ensures that our identity is defined by God's love rather than our record of mistakes. Living in this reality allows us to walk in freedom, knowing the verdict of "guilty" has been overturned by "mercy."

8. Drawing Near to the Source

To experience the fullness of mercy, we must actively pursue a relationship with God through prayer and the Word. God is not hiding from us, but He responds to those who draw near to Him with a thirsty soul. The closer we get to the light of His presence, the more we understand the depth of His kindness.

- "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded." (James 4:8 NKJV)

Summary: Proximity to God determines our level of spiritual awareness and peace. As we dedicate ourselves to seeking His face, the fog of the world clears, and His mercy becomes more tangible. Consistency in the "secret place" is the key to maintaining a heart that is sensitive to His leading.

9. The Renewal of the Mind

Living a life defined by mercy requires a radical shift in how we think. We must refuse to conform to the world's standards of revenge and pride, instead allowing the Holy Spirit to transform our thoughts. A renewed mind is the only way to accurately discern and walk in the perfect will of God.

- "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." (Romans 12:2 NKJV)

Summary: Transformation is an internal process that starts with the information we allow to shape our perspective. By replacing worldly logic with biblical truth, we enable the Holy Spirit to change our very nature. This mental shift is essential for anyone who desires to live a life that truly honors God's mercy.

10. The Role of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is our Comforter and Guide, the one who applies the mercy of God to our daily situations. He empowers us to live as witnesses and helps us make sound judgments in a chaotic world. Without His indwelling presence, we lack the "power" required to overcome the flesh and fulfill our divine calling.

- "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." (Acts 1:8 NKJV)

Summary: The Holy Spirit is the active agent of God's will in the life of the believer. He provides the strength to stay within the boundaries of God's mercy and the wisdom to navigate life's challenges. Relying on His power ensures that we are not trying to live the Christian life through our own limited strength.

11. Spiritual Discernment and Wisdom

In a world filled with deception, mercy provides us with the gift of discernment—the ability to distinguish between what is of God and what is of the enemy. This "holy unction" allows us to see past facades and recognize the spirits in operation. Wisdom is the practical application of this discernment in our relationships and decisions.

- "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1 NKJV)

Summary: Discernment is a protective shield that keeps us from falling into the traps of the wicked. By testing the spirits against the Word of God, we ensure our path remains aligned with truth. Cultivating this gift through prayer is vital for maintaining spiritual health and safety.

12. Surrendering to the Divine Will

The ultimate response to God's mercy is a life of total surrender. We must lay down our own ambitions, timing, and desires at the feet of Jesus, trusting that His plans are far superior to ours. Surrender is not a loss of identity, but the finding of our true purpose within the heartbeat of the Father.

- "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Galatians 2:20 NKJV)

Summary: True peace is found when we stop fighting for our own way and submit to God's perfect timing. His will is designed for our benefit and is backed by His unconditional love. When we yield our lives as living sacrifices, we experience the highest form of spiritual worship.

Prayer for God's Mercy

Heavenly Father, the King of Glory and the Author of Life, I come before Your majestic throne today with a heart that is hungry for Your presence. I acknowledge that You are the God of all comfort, the one whose mercy is as high as the heavens are above the earth. Lord, I stand before You not on the basis of my own righteousness, for my best efforts are but filthy rags, but I stand firmly upon the finished work of Your Son, Jesus Christ. I cry out from the depths of my soul: Oh God, show me mercy!

Lord, Your Word declares that You are rich in mercy and abounding in steadfast love. I ask right now that the fountain of Your compassion would break open over my life. In every area where I have stumbled, in every place where I have allowed the world to squeeze me into its mold, I ask for Your divine pardon. Blot out my transgressions according to the multitude of Your tender mercies. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquities and cleanse me from every hidden sin. I refuse to hide my heart from You any longer; I lay it bare before Your holy light.

Father, I pray for those areas of my life that feel like a wilderness. You said in Your Word that You would make a way in the desert and rivers in the wasteland. I ask for the mercy of a new beginning. Where I have seen failure, let me see Your favor. Where I have experienced lack, let Your abounding mercy provide a harvest. I declare that the past no longer has a claim on my future because Your mercy triumphs over judgment. Silence the voice of the accuser that seeks to remind me of my shame, and let the voice of Your Spirit remind me that I am Your beloved child, redeemed and restored.

I ask for the strength to be a vessel of this same mercy to others. Remove all bitterness, resentment, and unforgiveness from my heart. I refuse to be like the servant who was forgiven much but refused to forgive little.

Empower me to love the unlovable and to show kindness to those who have wronged me. Let my life be a living testimony of Your character. I pray specifically for my family and those I hold dear; let Your mantle of protection and mercy rest upon them. Expose the traps of the enemy and lead us in the path of righteousness for Your name's sake.

Holy Spirit, I yield to Your leadership. Renew my mind so that I may think the thoughts of heaven. Give me the gift of discernment to recognize the schemes of the wicked and the wisdom to walk in Your perfect will. I surrender my timing, my ambitions, and my desires to You. I believe that Your thoughts toward me are of good and not of evil, to give me a future and a hope. I will not be afraid of the darkness, for Your mercy is my light. I will not be moved by the storm, for Your compassion is my anchor.

Thank You, Lord, that even as I pray, Your mercy is being released. I thank You for the healings that are taking place, the chains that are breaking, and the doors that are swinging open by Your hand. I declare that I will live and not die, to declare the works of the Lord and the wonders of His mercy. From this day forward, I walk in the boldness of one who has been forgiven much. I praise You, I honor You, and I magnify Your holy name. In the mighty and matchless name of Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

The following 25 prayer points are designed to be used as a spiritual hammer to break open the heavens. Use them with the boldness and directness we discussed in the teaching, trusting that the mercy of God is already moving on your behalf.

"For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth... but the Lord will arise over you." (Isaiah 60:2)
  - 21. Lord Jesus, let Your mercy grant me the peace that surpasses all understanding, even in the middle of the storm.
"And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:7)
  - 22. Father, show me mercy by filling me afresh with the Holy Spirit and the power to live as a witness for You.
"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you." (Acts 1:8)
  - 23. Oh God, let Your mercy transform my mess into a message that brings glory to Your holy name.
"He has put a new song in my mouth—praise to our God; many will see it and fear, and will trust in the Lord." (Psalms 40:3)
  - 24. Lord, I cry for mercy in my thought life. Let every thought be brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ.
"Bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ." (2 Corinthians 10:5)
  - 25. Father, thank You that Your mercy is unfailing and that You have heard my cry today. I receive Your pardon and Your favor now!
"The Lord has heard my supplication; the Lord will receive my prayer." (Psalms 6:9)

Final Encouragement: Demetrious, as you lift these points, remember that you aren't begging a reluctant God; you are reminding a Loving Father of His own promises. These scriptures are the legal grounds for your breakthrough. Stand firm, pray with fire, and watch the mercy of God transform your world!
