

Don't Stop Now — Your Miracle Is Within Reach!

—A Powerful Message of Healing, Faith, and Unusual Miracles—

Page 1: Positioning Yourself for a Miracle

Sometimes, what seems like chaos is actually the positioning of Heaven. Jesus is never out of reach—but there are moments when your desperation, your cry, or even someone else's need places Jesus within your grasp. Just like in the story of Jairus and the woman with the issue of blood, one miracle can set off a chain reaction of breakthrough. Don't stop now. Your miracle is closer than you think.

Mark 5:21-23 (NKJV):

“Now when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great multitude gathered to Him; and He was by the sea. And behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue came, Jairus by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet and begged Him earnestly, saying, ‘My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come and lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live.’”

Key Point #1: Someone Else's Cry Can Bring Jesus Close to You

Jesus was on the move to Jairus's house when another need intercepted His journey.

One person's hunger for Jesus opened the way for someone else's miracle.

Romans 10:13 (NKJV):

“For ‘whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’”

Hebrews 13:8 (NKJV):

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.”

Key Point #2: Miracles Are for Today

Don’t buy into the lie that miracles are a thing of the past.

If Jesus healed then, He heals now. If He delivered then, He delivers now.

Page 2: Faith That Presses Through the Crowd

The woman with the issue of blood had every reason to stay home. She was weak, sick, outcast, and labeled "unclean." But she pressed beyond shame, fear, and tradition—because she believed Jesus was her only hope.

Mark 5:25-28 (NKJV):

“Now a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years, and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse. When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment. For she said, 'If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well.'"

Key Point #3: Faith Is a Determined Action

Faith doesn't just wish; faith moves.

She didn't wait for an invitation—she went after her healing.

Mark 5:29-30 (NKJV):

"Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction. And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, 'Who touched My clothes?'"

Key Point #4: Heaven Responds to the Touch of Faith

Faith pulls on the power of Jesus.

He noticed the difference between the crowd pressing and the faith reaching.

Page 3: The Power of Your Testimony and Refusing to Quit

This woman didn't just get her healing—she gave God glory. She didn't hide. She publicly testified. That testimony became part of Holy Scripture and still inspires faith today.

Mark 5:33-34 (NKJV):

“But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. And He said to her, ‘Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction.’”

Key Point #5: Don't Stop Until You Get Your Miracle

Keep praying. Keep seeking. Keep believing.

Unusual miracles are birthed in unusual perseverance.

Revelation 12:11 (NKJV):

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...”

Unusual Miracles Are Coming Your Way:

The demoniac of Gadera was delivered—thousands of demons gone.

Jairus's daughter was raised.

The woman with the issue of blood was healed.

All this happened in one stretch of Scripture—God doesn't run out of miracles.

Follow-Up Prayer: "Miracle-Working Jesus, I Won't Let Go!"

Heavenly Father,

In the mighty name of Jesus, I come before You with faith and desperation, like the woman with the issue of blood. I declare that my healing, my breakthrough, and my miracle are within reach today—not tomorrow, not next year—today! Just like You did for her, I believe You are passing by my way. I will not stop pressing until I touch the hem of Your garment.

Father, I thank You that nothing is too hard for You. You are the same yesterday, today, and forever. You healed then, and You heal now. Lord, I lay aside fear, shame, and doubt. I step into bold faith. I push past the crowd. I stretch my faith to touch You!

Now, in the name of Jesus, I speak to every sickness, every oppression, every limitation—go now in Jesus' name!

I bind every spirit of infirmity, and I loose the healing power of the Holy Ghost into my life.

I bind all spiritual resistance, and I loose the anointing for signs, wonders, and miracles.

I cancel demonic delays and interruptions, and I command this to be my season of unusual miracles.

Lord Jesus, I receive Your power. I receive my miracle. I receive peace. I will not keep it to myself. I will testify! I will give You all the glory!

In Jesus' name,

Amen!

 Remember: Testify. Declare it. Walk in it.

Your miracle is already moving toward you—don't stop now.
