WHEN PERSECUTION COMES

Preparing the Church to Stand, Suffer, and Overcome

A 10-Lesson Biblical Teaching on End-Time Persecution, Faith, Hope, and the Victory of Jesus Christ

INTRODUCTION

THE CHURCH MUST BE READY

There is a message the Church desperately needs to hear: Jesus never promised that following Him would always be comfortable, but He did promise that He would never leave us.

The Bible does not hide the truth about persecution. Jesus openly warned His disciples that difficult days would come. He told them that believers would be hated, rejected, betrayed, persecuted, and even killed because they carried His name.

But Jesus did not give us these warnings to make us afraid.

He warned us so we would be ready.

The purpose of this teaching is not to create fear about the future. It is to build faith for the future. We are not called to panic when darkness increases. We are called to shine brighter.

The persecuted Church around the world already gives us a picture of what faithful Christianity looks like under pressure. We called to pray for believers who are imprisoned, threatened, tortured, displaced, attacked, and sometimes facing death because of their testimony of Jesus Christ.

That means this subject is not merely about something that might happen someday.

It is already happening to our brothers and sisters in Christ.

And Scripture teaches that persecution will continue to be part of the experience of the Church until Jesus returns.

So we need to ask:

Are we spiritually prepared to stand?

Are we prepared to remain faithful when following Jesus costs us something?

Are we prepared to choose Christ when obedience becomes difficult?

Are we prepared to love God when circumstances become painful?

Are we prepared to stand on the Word when culture stands against the Word?

Are we prepared to trust the Holy Spirit when our own strength is not enough?

That is what this teaching is about.

We will be warned.

We will be prepared.

We will be strengthened.

We will be encouraged.

And above everything else, we will be pointed back to Jesus Christ.

Our hope is not in politics.

Our hope is not in governments.

Our hope is not in money.

Our hope is not in human strength.

Our hope is not even in our ability to understand everything that is coming.

Our hope is Jesus Christ.

He went to the Cross.

He defeated sin.

He defeated Satan.

He defeated death.

He rose from the grave.

He ascended in victory.

He sent the Holy Spirit.

And He is coming again.

Therefore, whatever happens in the earth, the Church has a future.

Jesus wins.

And because we belong to Jesus, our future is secure in Him.

LESSON 1

JESUS WARNED US THAT PERSECUTION WOULD COME

Jesus never told His followers that discipleship would be free from trouble. He specifically warned them that the world would hate them because it first hated Him. His warning was not meant to frighten His disciples but to prepare them to remain faithful when pressure came.

Three things we must understand:

- Persecution should not surprise the believer. Jesus specifically told His followers to expect opposition.
- Following Jesus separates us from the values of a world that rejects Him. Our loyalty belongs to Christ before everything else.
- Jesus gives us His presence in the middle of persecution. We never suffer alone.

Supporting Scripture

John 15:18 NKJV:

“If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.”

John 16:33 NKJV:

“In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.”

Matthew 24:9 NKJV:

“Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name’s sake.”

Jesus did not say, “If trouble happens.”

He said, “In the world you will have tribulation.”

That means we should not build our faith on the expectation that everything will always be easy.

A faith that only works when life is comfortable is not prepared for persecution.

God wants to develop something deeper in us.

He wants us to know Him so well that when circumstances change, our confidence in Him does not change.

Persecution may test our comfort.

It may test our possessions.

It may test our relationships.

It may test our reputation.

But ultimately, persecution tests one question:

Who will we choose?

Summary

Jesus warned us because He loves us. He does not want His people walking into difficult seasons unprepared.

The answer to persecution is not fear. The answer is preparation, faith, obedience, and confidence in the One who has already overcome the world.

LESSON 2

PERSECUTION DOES NOT MEAN GOD HAS ABANDONED YOU

One of the greatest lies the enemy can tell a suffering believer is, “God has left you.” Scripture teaches the opposite: God is near to the brokenhearted, faithful in suffering, and able to sustain His people through trials.

Sometimes God delivers us out of the fire, and sometimes He meets us in the fire.

Three things we must remember:

- God's presence is greater than our circumstances.
- Suffering does not cancel God's love.
- God can preserve our faith even when He does not immediately remove the trial.

Supporting Scripture

Psalm 34:18 NKJV:

"The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart."

Romans 8:35 NKJV:

"Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?"

Romans 8:37 NKJV:

"Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us."

Your prayer resource specifically calls believers to pray according to Psalm 34:19 for those suffering because of their faith and asks God to preserve their courage and endurance.

Think about Daniel.

God did not prevent Daniel from being thrown into the lions' den.

But God was with him in the lions' den.

Think about Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

God did not prevent them from entering the fiery furnace.

But the king saw another Man walking in the fire with them.

Sometimes God's greatest demonstration of faithfulness is not keeping us out of every trial.

Sometimes it is showing us:

“I am with you in the middle of it.”

Summary

If persecution comes, do not interpret difficulty as proof that God has forgotten you. The Cross itself proves God's love for us.

Our circumstances can change.

Our emotions can change.

People can change.

Governments can change.

But God does not change.

LESSON 3

OUR FOUNDATION MUST BE THE FINISHED WORK OF THE CROSS

The strongest persecuted Christian is not the person who thinks, “I am strong enough.” The strongest Christian is the one who knows, “Jesus Christ is enough.” Our confidence must rest in what Jesus accomplished, not in our own ability.

Three foundations we must build upon:

- Jesus paid the price for our salvation.
- The Cross defeated the power of sin and Satan.
- Our identity is established in Christ, not in what people say about us.

Supporting Scripture

Colossians 2:15 NKJV:

“He disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them.”

Galatians 2:20 NKJV:

“I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me.”

Romans 8:1 NKJV:

“There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus.”

The enemy wants believers to live terrified of what he might do.

The Gospel teaches us to stand confidently in what Jesus has already done.

The Cross is not merely where Jesus died.

It is where Jesus paid our debt.

It is where our guilt was dealt with.

It is where Satan's claims against us were defeated.

It is where God's love was demonstrated.

And the empty tomb tells us that death did not have the final word.

That is why the persecuted believer can say:

“You may threaten my body, but you cannot take Christ from me.”

The world may take possessions.

It may take freedom.

It may take a reputation.

But it cannot take the eternal salvation Jesus purchased.

Summary

When persecution comes, run toward the Cross, not away from it.

Your confidence is not that nothing bad can ever happen to you. Your confidence is that nothing can separate you from Jesus Christ.

LESSON 4

THE WORD OF GOD MUST BECOME OUR ANCHOR

A Christian who does not know the Word is vulnerable when pressure comes. In difficult times, feelings can change quickly, but the Word of God remains true. The Church must become a people who know Scripture, believe Scripture, speak Scripture, and live Scripture.

Three things the Word does:

- The Word gives us truth when deception increases.
- The Word gives us courage when fear increases.
- The Word gives us direction when confusion increases.

Supporting Scripture

Psalms 119:105 NKJV:

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.”

Matthew 24:35 NKJV:

“Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.”

2 Timothy 3:12 NKJV:

“Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.”

Notice what Paul says.

He doesn't say only pastors will suffer persecution.

He says those who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will face it.

That means preparation cannot be limited to Sunday morning.

We need the Word in our homes.

We need the Word in our children.

We need the Word in our marriages.

We need the Word in our minds.

We need the Word in our mouths.

We need the Word in our private lives.

A Bible sitting on a shelf will not strengthen you.

The Word must get inside you.

You need Scripture stored in your heart before the crisis arrives.

Summary

Do not wait until persecution comes to learn how to trust God's Word.

Read it now.

Study it now.

Memorize it now.

Live it now.

When the storm comes, you will discover that the Word you planted in peaceful days can become an anchor during the storm.

LESSON 5

THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL GIVE US STRENGTH TO STAND

Jesus never expected His disciples to face persecution through human strength alone. He promised the Holy Spirit, who would empower, guide, comfort, strengthen, and give believers wisdom and words when they needed them.

Three promises concerning the Holy Spirit:

- The Holy Spirit gives power beyond our natural ability.
- The Holy Spirit gives wisdom in difficult situations.
- The Holy Spirit gives comfort when we feel alone.

Supporting Scripture

Acts 1:8 NKJV:

“But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you.”

Luke 12:12 NKJV:

“For the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say.”

John 14:16 NKJV:

“And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper.”

We must specifically ask God to give believers facing hostile authorities supernatural wisdom and words according to Luke 21:15.

This is extremely important.

Jesus did not tell us:

“You will figure everything out yourself.”

He gave us the Holy Spirit.

There may be moments when you do not know what to say.

The Holy Spirit knows.

There may be moments when you do not know what to do.

The Holy Spirit knows.

There may be moments when you feel you cannot continue.

The Holy Spirit can strengthen you.

The Christian life was never designed to be lived in human strength.

Summary

We should not prepare for persecution by becoming afraid of persecution.
We prepare by becoming more dependent on the Holy Spirit.

Ask Him now to fill you.

Ask Him now to teach you.

Ask Him now to strengthen you.

Ask Him now to make you bold.

LESSON 6

PERSECUTION CAN TEST OUR FAITH—BUT IT CAN ALSO STRENGTHEN IT

Trials reveal what is really inside us. Persecution can expose weak areas that God wants to strengthen before greater pressure comes. God can use even suffering to produce endurance, maturity, courage, and deeper dependence upon Him.

Three things trials can produce:

- Endurance.
- Spiritual maturity.
- A deeper knowledge of Jesus.

Supporting Scripture

James 1:2-3 NKJV:

“My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials.”

Romans 5:3-4 NKJV:

“Tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character.”

1 Peter 1:7 NKJV:

“That the genuineness of your faith... may be found to praise, honor, and glory.”

This does not mean we enjoy suffering.

It means we trust God enough to believe He can bring something valuable out of suffering.

A person who has never had their faith tested may think they are strong.

But pressure reveals foundations.

Persecution can reveal whether we are following Jesus because we truly love Him or because we expect Him to make our lives easier.

Jesus deserves our loyalty even when following Him costs us.

Summary

Do not waste your trials.

Let God use them to make you stronger.

When pressure comes, don't only pray, "Lord, get me out."

Also pray:

"Lord, make me faithful while I am here."

LESSON 7

WE MUST PREPARE OUR FAMILIES AND THE NEXT GENERATION

End-time preparation is not just personal. Parents must teach their children who Jesus is and why He is worth following even when following Him becomes difficult. The Church must raise young people who know the Word, love Jesus, recognize deception, and are not ashamed of the Gospel.

Three priorities for families:

- Teach children the Word of God.
- Teach children to love Jesus, not merely religious activity.
- Teach children that faithfulness matters more than popularity.

Supporting Scripture

Deuteronomy 6:6-7 NKJV:

“You shall teach them diligently to your children.”

Psalms 78:4 NKJV:

“We will tell to the generation to come the praises of the LORD.”

2 Timothy 1:5 NKJV:

“...the genuine faith that is in you.”

We must specifically ask God to protect the children of persecuted believers and raise up a generation of courageous Christian young people who will stand unashamed for Jesus.

We cannot assume our children will automatically believe what we believe.

We must disciple them.

Talk to them about Jesus.

Pray with them.

Teach them Scripture.

Show them what repentance looks like.

Show them what forgiveness looks like.

Show them what courage looks like.

Let them see you trust God.

Children need more than warnings about the world.

They need a genuine relationship with Jesus.

Summary

The greatest inheritance we can give our children is not money, possessions, or comfort.

It is a faith that says:

“Whatever happens, Jesus is Lord.”

Raise children who know that truth.

LESSON 8

PERSECUTED BELIEVERS ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

The Bible calls us to remember suffering believers and stand with them in prayer. Around the world, Christians are facing imprisonment, violence, displacement, intimidation, and death because they follow Jesus. Their suffering should move us from passive concern into active prayer and practical love.

Three things we should do:

- Pray for persecuted believers.
- Encourage and support the suffering Church.
- Ask God to strengthen their witness and bring salvation through their testimony.

Supporting Scripture

Hebrews 13:3 NKJV:

“Remember the prisoners as if chained with them.”

Galatians 6:2 NKJV:

“Bear one another’s burdens.”

1 Corinthians 12:26 NKJV:

“If one member suffers, all the members suffer with it.”

Your uploaded prayer resource repeatedly emphasizes praying for prisoners, captives, missionaries, pastors, Gospel workers, hidden churches, families, and those facing death.

The persecuted Church is not somebody else's Church.

It is our Church.

They are our brothers.

They are our sisters.

They are part of the same Body.

We may live in different countries.

We may speak different languages.

We may worship differently culturally.

But we have the same Lord.

When they suffer, we should pray.

When they are afraid, we should pray.

When they are imprisoned, we should pray.

When they are facing death, we should pray.

And when they remain faithful, we should thank God.

Summary

Never allow persecution to become merely another news story.

These are people for whom Christ died.

Pray for them as though you were standing beside them.

LESSON 9

GOD CAN TURN SUFFERING INTO TESTIMONY AND REVIVAL

Satan wants persecution to silence the Church, but God can use the testimony of suffering believers to spread the Gospel. The blood of martyrs, the courage of prisoners, and the faithfulness of persecuted Christians can become powerful witnesses to the reality of Jesus Christ.

Three things God can do:

- Turn suffering into testimony.
- Use faithful believers to reach persecutors.
- Cause the Gospel to advance even under opposition.

Supporting Scripture

Philippians 1:12 NKJV:

“The things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel.”

2 Corinthians 4:17 NKJV:

“For our light affliction... is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory.”

Revelation 12:11 NKJV:

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony.”

Your prayer resource specifically asks God to use the testimony and sacrifice of persecuted believers to bring revival throughout the nations.

Look at the early Church.

Persecution came.

Believers scattered.

But what happened?

The Gospel went with them.

What looked like defeat became a vehicle for Gospel advancement.

That is how God works.

The enemy says:

“I will stop them.”

God says:

“I will use this.”

Summary

Never underestimate what God can do with a faithful believer under pressure.

Your suffering does not have to be meaningless.

God can turn your testimony into somebody else's doorway to salvation.

LESSON 10

JESUS WILL HAVE THE FINAL WORD

This is where our teaching must end: not with persecution, not with suffering, not with the Antichrist, not with governments, not with death, and not with fear. It ends with Jesus Christ reigning in victory.

Three truths we must never forget:

- Jesus is Lord.
- The Church will endure.
- Jesus is coming again.

Supporting Scripture

Matthew 16:18 NKJV:

“...I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it.”

Revelation 2:10 NKJV:

“Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.”

Revelation 21:4 NKJV:

“And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Your prayer resource ends with a powerful declaration that the Church is still standing, that the gates of hell will not prevail, and that Jesus Christ is Lord over every nation, ruler, government, people, and spiritual power.

This is our hope.

Jesus wins.

The Gospel wins.

The Church endures.

Death does not win.

Satan does not win.

Persecution does not win.

Hell does not win.

Jesus Christ wins.

And if you belong to Him, your future is secure.

That does not mean every believer will escape suffering.

It means suffering cannot cancel God's promise.

Some believers will be delivered from persecution.

Some will be delivered through persecution.

Some will be delivered from prison.

Some will die as martyrs.

But all who belong to Christ will ultimately be delivered into His presence.

Summary

Therefore, Church, stand.

Do not be afraid.

Do not compromise.

Do not abandon Jesus when pressure comes.

Do not trade eternal truth for temporary comfort.

Keep your eyes on Christ.

Keep your Bible open.

Keep your prayer life alive.

Stay filled with the Holy Spirit.

Stay connected to the Body of Christ.

Love your family.

Pray for the persecuted Church.

And above everything else:

Remain faithful to Jesus.

LET'S PRAY...

Heavenly Father, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ, we come before You with humble hearts. We thank You that You are our Father, our refuge, our defender, our strength, and our hope. Thank You that before the foundation of the world You knew us, and that through Jesus Christ You have called us out of darkness and into Your marvelous light.

Father, prepare us for whatever lies ahead. We do not want to live in fear of the future. We want to live by faith in You. Teach us to trust You when circumstances are difficult. Teach us to obey You when obedience costs us something. Teach us to remain faithful when people misunderstand us, reject us, mock us, or oppose us because of our faith in Jesus Christ.

Lord Jesus, let the finished work of the Cross become the foundation of our confidence. Remind us that our salvation is not based upon our own goodness but upon Your finished work. When the enemy brings condemnation, remind us that there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. When fear comes, remind us that You have overcome the world.

Holy Spirit, fill us with Your power. Strengthen us in our inner man. Give us wisdom, discernment, courage, and boldness. Teach us what to say and what not to say. Give us wisdom to recognize deception. Help us distinguish truth from lies and righteousness from compromise.

Father, prepare our homes. Protect our spouses, our children, our grandchildren, our parents, our brothers and sisters, and everyone You have placed in our families. Teach us how to disciple our families. Help us establish homes where prayer is normal, Scripture is honored, repentance is practiced, forgiveness is freely given, and Jesus Christ is Lord.

Father, strengthen us now before the pressure comes. Give us spiritual roots that go deep into Your Word. Help us develop a prayer life that is real and consistent. Help us stop playing church and become genuine disciples of Jesus Christ.

Lord, if persecution comes, give us grace to stand.

If we are threatened, give us courage.

If we are rejected, give us peace.

If we are imprisoned, be with us.

If we are falsely accused, defend us.

If we lose possessions, remind us that our treasure is in heaven.

If we lose relationships because of our faith, remind us that You will never leave us.

If we are called to suffer, give us strength.

If we are called to testify, give us boldness.

And if we are ever called to lay down our lives for Christ, give us grace to remain faithful until the end.

Father, protect the persecuted Church around the world. Protect pastors, missionaries, evangelists, children, families, underground churches, prisoners, refugees, and believers meeting secretly to worship Jesus. Give them supernatural strength. Give them food, shelter, Bibles, protection, wisdom, and encouragement.

Lord, deliver those who can be delivered. Open prison doors. Expose wicked plans. Frustrate violent schemes. Protect innocent people from harm. Bring justice where injustice has been committed.

And Father, save the persecutors.

Reveal Jesus Christ to those who hate Your people. Turn enemies into brothers and sisters in Christ. Let testimonies of forgiveness and courage shake nations.

Father, let the Gospel continue to advance.

Let no government, ideology, spiritual power, weapon, threat, prison, or persecution stop the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Raise up a generation that will not be ashamed of Jesus.

Raise up young men and women who love truth.

Raise up pastors who will not compromise.

Raise up parents who will disciple their children.

Raise up believers who will pray.

Raise up missionaries who will go.

Raise up intercessors who will stand in the gap.

And prepare Your entire Church for the return of Jesus Christ.

Father, we surrender our fears to You.

We surrender our families to You.

We surrender our future to You.

We surrender our plans to You.

We surrender our possessions to You.

We surrender our lives to You.

Our confession is simple:

Jesus Christ is Lord.

He is Lord when life is easy.

He is Lord when life is hard.

He is Lord when we have much.

He is Lord when we have little.

He is Lord when we are celebrated.

He is Lord when we are rejected.

He is Lord when we are free.

He is Lord when we are suffering.

And He will remain Lord forever.

Father, keep us faithful.

Keep us watchful.

Keep us humble.

Keep us prayerful.

Keep us filled with the Holy Spirit.

Keep us anchored in Your Word.

Keep us close to Jesus.

And when the enemy tries to make us afraid, remind us that the Cross has already declared victory.

We belong to Jesus.

Our lives are in His hands.

Our eternity is secure.

Our hope is alive.

And our King is coming.

In Jesus Christ's mighty, powerful, and victorious name we pray.

Amen.

FINAL WORDS OF EXHORTATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT

Church, do not be afraid of the future.

Be prepared for it.

There is a difference.

Jesus did not tell us what was coming so that we would spend our days trembling.

He told us so that we could stand.

The answer to end-time persecution is not panic.

It is preparation.

Get in the Word.

Get in prayer.

Get filled with the Holy Spirit.

Get your house in order.

Forgive people.

Walk in holiness.

Love your family.

Stay connected to the Body of Christ.

Learn to hear the voice of God through Scripture.

Stop building your faith on comfort.

Build it on Christ.

The Church does not need believers who only know how to shout when everything is going well.

We need believers who know how to stand when everything around them is shaking.

We need believers who can say:

“Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.”

We need believers who can say:

“I will not deny Jesus.”

We need believers who understand that this world is temporary but the Kingdom of God is eternal.

So lift your head.

Strengthen your heart.

Open your Bible.

Get on your knees.

Teach your children.

Encourage your brothers and sisters.

Pray for the persecuted Church.

And keep your eyes on Jesus.

The darkness may become darker.

But the Light still shines.

The world may become more hostile.

But Jesus is still Lord.

The enemy may attack.

But the gates of hell will not prevail against the Church.

Persecution may come.

But God's faithfulness will remain.

And when everything is finally finished, those who belong to Jesus will stand before Him.

No more tears.

No more death.

No more suffering.

No more persecution.

No more fear.

Only the presence of Jesus forever.

Therefore, Church—stand.

Stand in Christ.

Stand in the Word.

Stand in holiness.

Stand in faith.

Stand in love.

Stand in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Stand until Jesus comes.
